BRIDGEWATER, Feb. 14—A cat, in its eagerness to escape from fumes filling a down-stairs room, resulted in saving the lives of a family of six asleep on the second floor at the residence of William Haas, Ford Road, near Route 113, yesterday morning.

Mr. Haas, hearing a crash on the first floor at 4:30, leaped out of bed and ran downstairs to investigate. As he made his way down the stairway he detected strong fumes from an electric refrigerator. As he neared the first floor the fumes became stronger. Reaching the first floor Mr. Haas discovered that the cat had knocked over a dish which had been smashed to pieces. He hastily left the house and ran to the residence of a neighbor, Thomas Vickers, 300 feet away. Obtaining a ladder, he returned and assisted his wife and four children down the ladder. All were garbed in night clothing, and suffered from the suffocating temperature as they made their way to the Vickers home where they were given shelter.

After being wrapped in blankets and given warm food it was found that none of the family had suffered severely. The fumes, however, had permeated the entire interior of the house and the family has not as yet been able to return to the home.

Those cared for at the Vickers residence are: Mr. and Mrs. William Haas, and their children: William, 18, Carol, 15, Dorothy, 13, Marian, 12.

Valentine Program Given By High School Choir

At a junior-senior assembly on Wednesday Bristol high school choir presented its Valentine program in the high school auditorium. A group of students from the industrial department under supervision of John Schwartz attended to the general decoration of the stage, which consisted of a huge red and white heart at the rear of the stage. As an introduction to each selection by the choir, a short poem was narrated by Miss Patricia Ennis.

Under direction of Charles H. Quigley, the following choral selections were rendered: "Sunrise and You" (Penn); "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" (Rodgers); "Love's Own Sweet Song" (Kahnman); "To-gether" (De Sylva); "The Bells of St. Mary's" (Adams); "At the End of a Perfect Day" (Bond); "When Day is Done" (Katscher).

The following vocal soloists performed: "At Dawning", Lillian Bell; "The Desert Song", Carolyn Ludwig; "Years and Years Ago", Kermit Marsh; "Oh Promise Me", Theresa Lomma; "Romance" (piano solo), Rita Clout; "If I Loved You", Veronica Spezzano; "Serenade", Marcia Van Lengen; "Sweet Dreams, Sweetheart", Lester Shire.

SAMUEL R. PETTENGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

The itch and urge of a majority of the U. S. Supreme Court to remake the world to their hearts' desire is without end. Its portal-to-portal decision is only one of many manifestations of its deep discontent with Congress and the American people. There are many others.

This restless majority recently reversed a criminal conviction because no women were on the grand jury that indicted, or the trial jury that convicted. Granted that women make excellent jurors. Still, the question remains whether that is a matter for legislatures to legislate, or for courts to enact.

There is not a syllable in any act of Congress that women must be on federal juries. The Court admits that this is so. Since 1789, a matter of one hundred and fifty-eight years, it has been the law of Congress that the qualifications for federal juries shall be the same as for juries in state courts. But this is too old-fashioned for the majority on the Supreme Court. So they have in effect by a 5 to 4 vote, rewritten an Act of Congress—just as they did in the portal-to-portal case.

To their credit, Chief Justice Vinson, and Justices Frankfurter, Burton and Jackson wrote a blistering dissent.

If women must serve on federal juries because "a flavor, a distinct quality is lost if either sex is excluded," as Justice Douglas claims, then it would seem that there ought to be women on the Supreme Court! That is more important than any federal jury.

Steven M. Vandegrift, retired business man of Newtown, died at his home, Tuesday, following a lengthy illness.

He had been a resident of Newtown for 45 years and had been engaged in the contracting business for some time before his retirement. Mr. Vandegrift underwent several operations, but recently suffered a relapse.

Born in Doylestown, Mr. Vandegrift was the son of John C. and Martha Thompson Vandegrift. The only survivor is the widow, Mrs. Phoebe Hurston Vandegrift.

The deceased was a member of the Newtown Masonic Lodge, Jr. O. U. A. M. No. 739, Newtown, the Neshaunim Lodge of Odd Fellows. He was also secretary of the Newtown Board of Health and was assessor of the Second Ward as well as Republican Committeeman of the Second Ward.

Announcement has been made by Miss Melba Lukens, instructor of art at Doylestown high school, that a Doylestown student has received honors in the Eastern Pennsylvania Regional Scholastic Art Exhibit.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Presidential possibilities continued a popular Washington subject. President Truman, reaffirming his determination to act "without regard to my personal political fortunes," denied that he was an active candidate for another term. On the Republican side, some observers said that Senator Taft was losing ground and that Senator Bricker might emerge as Ohio's "favorite son."

Senator Taft outlined a five-point program for Congress, including a drastic labor bill, expiration of the Second War Powers Act on March 31 and a $1,500,000,000 to $5,000,000,000 cut in the President's budget. Mr. Truman reiterated his opposition to any cut and a bipartisan bloc was forming in Congress to limit the cut.

The House Labor Committee, after hearing charges of "hoodlumism" against union leaders, decided to investigate why local law officers had failed to prosecute. In New York, a CIO official reported a 10 per cent increase for 15,000 Southern cotton workers through peaceful negotiations that might set a pattern and insure labor peace in the South.

A slight improvement was noted in Britain's "battle of the power stations," but the Government saw increasing difficulties for another

STRESSES ACCURATE

To Exchangeites*INCOME TAX SUBJECT

Bristol Exchange Club members met last evening in the Elks' Home with 25 members present. Sheridan B. Metz presided. Guests were Harry Seltzer and James Redmond. Andrew MacArthur led the group in singing, with Keith Rosser as accompanist.

David L. Hertzler, vice-president, introduced the speaker, Frank Hennessy, of the Philadelphia office, U. S. Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Mr. Hennessy spoke on the subject of "Income Tax." Several important procedures were outlined for benefit of the members: first, the necessity of keeping accurate records; second, that to claim a deduction an individual must put that deduction down; third, any expense that is ordinary and necessary in a business is deductible.

The speaker remarked that the high war taxes might seem difficult on individuals, but stated that "when people pay taxes they become tax conscious. It is then that they become interested in the national, state and local budgets, and are desirous of electing better representatives in government."

"From January 1 to March 15 the members of the Bureau of Internal Revenue assist the tax payers. All income tax returns are confidential, and the Bureau of Internal Revenue will not release any information to any individual or group, even to the F. B. I."

The high-light of the evening was the question period, during which Mr. Hennessy answered every question with speed and dispatch.

James Redmond, of the Bristol office, spoke briefly to members, and added much information of value, particularly on filing withholding tax returns.

Skidding Car Strikes An Abutment; Two Injured

A resident of Bristol and a Philadelphia man were slightly injured yesterday morning at 10:45 when the car in which they were riding is said to have skidded on some ice and struck an abutment at the railroad underpass on Otter street.

The injured: Liborio Lodato, 825 Pond street, injury to left knee and cut on top of head.

Harry A. Knott, 3253 N. 15th St., Philadelphia, cut on forehead.

The two men were taken to Harbman Hospital by a passing motorist.

The two were travelling east in the automobile operated by Mr. Lodato, and the impact caused approximately $100 damage to the machine.

Officer Allen of Penna. State Police, Langhorne barracks, investigated.

Charge at Court*SENTENCED BY JUDGE

DOYLESTOWN, Feb. 14—Tuesday afternoon three Norristown residents, with good reputations—war veterans who had never been in any trouble before—were sentenced by Judge Keller to 2 to 5 years in the penitentiary after they had pleaded guilty to holding up the owner of a gasoline filling station at Feasterville last Christmas Eve.

The Norristown defendants are Gordon O. Downing, 23, 1016 Arch street, George Clary, 39, 1123 Green street, and Nathaniel H. Nelson, 26, 1120 Willow street.

In pronouncing sentence Judge Keller said that he would draw a line of distinction between the youthful Doylestown bandits and the trio from Norristown. The Doylestown "dollar bandits" who beat up their victim, lacked the good reputation of the three Norristown youths who pleaded guilty Tuesday. Thus the difference in sentence, the court explained.

The Norristown trio held up Joseph Freed at his gasoline station.

Mill street business men, last night, gathered in session in the fire station of Bristol Fire Company, No. 1, to hear a speaker upon a topic of great interest to them, to further perfect their organization which has been revived under the presidency of J. S. Lynn and a group of other active merchants on the street.

Additional committees were named, a business session held and a very informative talk was given by G. R. Dette, president of Memorial Investment and Management Company of Philadelphia.

Improvement of the physical condition of Mill street was one of the topics considered and a committee was named to contact the proper borough authorities.

Mr. Dette spoke upon the topic, "Can Small Business Survive in Our National Economy?"

Mr. Lynn, recently elected president of the group, introduced Mr. Dette, who said: "In November of 1944 a group of small business men of Philadelphia decided that something must be done to protect the rights of small business, and decided to form an organization to do for the small business man what was

Rotarians Hear About Health Regulations

"Health As It Is Related To Community Service," was the subject which Dr. H. Doyle Webb discussed when he addressed his fellow members of the Bristol Rotary Club at the Elks' Home yesterday afternoon. "The Bucks County Rescue Squad is one of the most outstanding examples of community service in this area," Dr. Webb declared. "The Squad's services in the interest of health can never be praised too highly."

Outlining different agencies which aid in the community service program from the health angle, the speaker pointed out that every community is under the direct supervision of the State Board of Health. This Board performs a number of important tasks and others are designated for county direction. Among the services the county performs are those coming under the direction of the County Commissioners and the Department of Public Assistance.

In our own community the Borough Council appoints a Board of Health, the first Board in Bristol being appointed in 1893. The Borough also provides for a sanitation committee which assures us good water and proper sewage disposal facilities.

The speaker, who is president of the Bristol Board of Health, pointed out that the Health Officer of the Board, James H. Brooks, carries out directives of the Board. He inspects the public eating and drinking places in the Borough, makes monthly inspection of the dairies, and investigates nuisances reported to the Board. All diseases in the Borough are reported to and tabulated by the Board of Health.

Dr. Webb showed members a milk filter which is employed by the Board in testing milk in the local dairies.

"All our dairies are first class here in this area, and this fact, plus the fact that our water is so fine, have added health here tremendously," Dr. Webb declared. "Because of the cleanliness of our milk and water supplies, and the greater interest of mothers in seeing that their babies are given the necessary injections against certain diseases, we can now boast the finest group of babies in our history," the speaker added.

At the conclusion of his talk Dr. Webb answered questions for members. President Richard W. Fehntenburg was in charge of the meeting. Dr. Webb was introduced by Robert C. Ruehl, chairman of the Community Service Committee of the club.

MEANINGFUL FIGURES

There is a warning in certain statistics made public by the Department of Commerce, a warning that every American should take to heart.

According to a report released by the department, income payments in this country during 1946
reached a new high of $164,000-000,000, an increase of $3,000-000,000 as compared to 1945. Expenditures for goods and services during 1946 also reached a new high, rising $21,000,000,000 over 1945 to attain a total of $127,000-000,000.

It is worth noting that the last quarter of the year supplied even more spectacular figures than 1946 as a whole. In that period income payments were at the annual rate of $173,000,000,000 and expenditures for goods and services attained an annual rate of $137,000,000,000.

These statistics show that expenditures have been rising more rapidly than income. The gap between the two was $56,000,000-000 in 1945, $47,000,000,000 in 1946, and it would have been $36,000,000,000 if the experience of the last quarter had extended over the entire year.

Of course, the pent-up demand
created by wartime shortages accounts for a large share of the increased spending. But higher prices were also a factor. And at the end of the year the department's experts noticed an increasing variation in sales, reflecting curtailed buying forced by higher prices.

Evidently price levels as a whole cannot rise much further if purchasing power is to absorb the goods and services available.
Wage increases that would involve price advances are not in the cards if the goal is to be continued prosperity. Downward price adjustments where possible are needed. Sustained but discriminating buying by the public is the third leg of the stool.

Inside Your Congress

What right has an all-man Supreme Court to reverse a conviction of an all-man jury? Will these justices now rewrite the law of Congress to compel women to be appointed as Supreme Court Justices, and will they now resign their seats
so women may fill the vacancies?

This may seem a fairly small matter, but it points at something fundamentally wrong with the Court. Too many of them have stopped being judges and have joined the crusaders.

Crusaders on courts are evil
things. You can elect Congressmen and Senators. If you don't like the laws they enact, you can defeat them, and elect new legislators to write anew. But when the Court goes into the law-making business,
the people lose the right to govern themselves. The federal courts are beyond the reach of the people. This is all right, but just so long as they behave as judges and not as legislators.

Anyway, the Constitution prevides that "all legislative power herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States." That ought to end the argument.

Former Secretary of War Stimson
defends using the atom bomb against the Japs because, as he says, it shortened the war, saved many American lives, and also, for good and Christian measure, many Japanese lives. This makes it a kind deed all around. Anything that will shorten wars and save lives deserves credit?

What is better, a short quick war,
soon over, that kills 5,000,000
soldiers and civilians, or a long exhausting war that kills and starves 5,000,000? We might ask the dead the answer to that question. We get not and bothered about the atom bomb, but what are we doing about war itself, the supreme atrocity, regardless of the tools used in the butchering process?

places of meeting and included
Philadelphia; Baltimore; Lancaster, Pa.; York, Pa.; Princeton, N. J.; Annapolis, Md.; Trenton, N. J.;
and New York City.

Incidentally, the President is authorized by proclamation to convene Congress at such place other than Washington as he may judge proper when "from the prevalence of contagious sickness, or the existence of other circumstances, it would, in the opinion of the President, be hazardous to the lives or health of the Members to meet" in Washington.

The Constitution, article I, sec-

Thorne Named V.-Pres't Of Pa. Bankers' Group 2

A Bristol banker on Wednesday
was chosen vice-president of Group 2, Pennsylvania Bankers' Association, at the annual meeting held in Philadelphia.

Lester D. Thorne, secretary and treasurer of the Bristol Trust Co., was elected vice-president, and Richard G. Burn, president of National Bank of Media, was named president of the Group.

Richard G. Burn, president, First National Bank of Media, was elected chairman of Group 2 to succeed Stern. Lester D. Thorne, secretary and treasurer, Bristol Trust Co., was elected vice-chairman. Warren
T. Locker, executive vice-president, Jenkintown Bank & Trust Co., was elected secretary and treasurer,
and Donald P. Horsey, president,
First National Bank of Conshohocken,
to P. B. A. Council of Administration.

Others elected are: Executive committee, Malcolm Ruth, Brinton
H. Hogeland, Earl K. Wilwer, Harold Ogram, Russell M. Hillebrand, H.
L. Natschke, Federal Reserve relations committee, G. W. Crawford, R.
E. Muench, Harry E. Dean; nominating advisory committee of Federal Reserve directors, George F.
Roop, E. P. Schaeffer, Irvin T. Kepler.

The group includes Berks, Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Schuylkill counties.

Country banks were told flatly by Robert W. Wolcott, president, Lubers Steel Co., that unless they changed their mode of operation and went out and "sold" themselves and their institutions, they cannot "expect to carry on continuing profitable business."

Addressing the 51st annual meeting of Group 2, Wolcott took smaller banks to task for failure to serve properly financial needs of their communities. He told them that instead of "selling" loans, they have turned borrower into "salesman"
for loan, with granting of loan having "decided air of patronage or favor permeating transaction."

This attitude, he informed bankers, had created unhealthy viewpoint and had made "too many"
business men as reluctant to visit banks to borrow money or to seek financial advice as they were to undergo physical examinations by their physicians. He added that it had made many business men believe "that borrowing was a sin or start of a cancerous growth."

Wolcott declared that executives of smaller industries usually were unfamiliar with financial problems and that it was up to banks to show them that "as result of your broad experience, you can save their company from some financial heart-aches and pitfalls."

No wants too small or great that a Want Ad will not solve.

Formal Investiture Service for Scouts

The formal investiture service of Troop 42 was conducted on Sunday evening at eight o'clock in Zion Lutheran Church, the sponsoring institution of the newly-formed troop. David M. Sheerer, Jr., vice-president of the Bucks County Council, opened the investiture
service and introduced Messrs.
James Harris, Sol Miller and John Burtonwood, who addressed the troop members, the scoutmaster and assistant, and the troop committee members.

The troop charter and the registration certificates were received from the scout officials and presented by the Rev. Paul H. Gleichman, pastor, to Walter W. Schrenk, chairman, and the members of the committee.

The investiture and candle-lighting ceremony were conducted by Troop 69, of Croydon, Philip Myers, scoutmaster. Other scouts and officials who witnessed the service of investiture included the troop of Bristol Terrace, Joseph Stephens,
scoutmaster; and Frank Weik,
chairman, Lower Bucks advancement committee.

Troop 42 was organized in November under the direction of Mr.
Sheerer and how numbers 12 boys.
John J. Austin and Ernest F. Nuskey are serving as scoutmaster and assistant. The troop committee representing Zion Lutheran Church
consists of Messrs. Walter Schrenk, Fred Veigel, William Naylor, LeRoy
Jenks, Alfred Scheetz, Robert
Braker, Fred Herrman, and Pastor
Gleichman.

Troop meetings are held each Monday evening in the parish house.

The winner of these awards is Earl Hanny, member of the junior class, who placed second in the ink exhibits and third in the pastel crayon contest. Earl's subject for both pictures was a Doylestown scene sketched from the bell tower of the high school.

The scene, which was depicted, was Garden Lane. He sketched the view from the bell tower.

Sponsorship of the New Hope Model Club, an organization engaged in the building and flying of model airplanes, was decided upon by the members of the New Hope Exchange Club, here.

By having a sponsor, the model will become eligible for membership in the Academy of Aeronautics. Leaders for the club are Marc Walton, Walter Nelson and John Hawthorne.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Moore, of Perkasie, on Sunday entertained a large number of relatives and friends at an open house in celebration of their 55th wedding anniversary.

The bride and groom of 55 years ago received a large number of gifts, cards, flowers and telegrams of a congratulatory nature. Refreshments were served.

Three Sentenced To Terms in Jail

tion on the Bustleton pike, and robbed him of $337. Two guns were used in the holdup. The men were caught as a result of excellent police work on the part of Troopers Dane and Carfagno, of the Langhorne State Police, and the Norristown police.

"I wish I might call you boys; then I'd have a place for you," Judge Keller commented before sentence was pronounced. "Yesterday this court had the same kind of case involving four other war veterans—but the two cases are entirely different. You have fine records, each of you; they had very poor records. The young men before me now came from fine Christian homes, and you have had an excellent war record and an equally good reputation. But this case cannot be overlooked; the public would not stand for it. The law prohibits probation in a case of this type; you must serve a sentence."

"The court believes that in this case you have learned your lesson. Why you picked out Christmas Eve to do this job, when you should have been at your homes, the court is at a loss to know."

Judge Keller then imposed sentence which includes a $5 fine and costs and 2 to 5 years in the "Pen." "And when you get out don't be bitter at the world, for had it not been for your good reputation the minimum sentence in this case would have been doubled," Judge Keller advised the defendants.

Not in many years in the county criminal court has such an exceptional case been heard. The three defendants, all of whom had good jobs, did not have to steal. They were not drinkers. The defendants

THE ORIGIN of St. Valentine's Day.

THE FIRST VALENTINE WAS SENT BY A YOUNG ROMAN PRIEST, ST. VALENTINE WHO WAS BEHEADED FEB. 14, 270 A.D. FOR REFUSING TO RENOUNCE HIS CHRISTIANITY.

HIS FAREWELL MESSAGE TO HIS FRIEND, THE JAILER'S DAUGHTER, WAS SIGNED— "FROM YOUR VALENTINE."

ANCIENT ROMANS GAVE CUPID A HELPING HAND WITH LOVE LOTTERIES IN WHICH YOUNG MAIDS AND BACHELORS BECAME VALENTINES BY DRAWING LOTS. THESE WERE THE ORIGINAL "BLIND DATES"

IN ENGLAND, DURING ELIZABETHAN TIMES, A POPULAR PASTIME WAS TO Toss an APPLE OR AN ORANGE, WITH A VALENTINE ATTACHED, THROUGH THE WINDOW OF A GIRL WHO WAS NOT ALREADY SPOKEN FOR.

THE VALENTINE CUSTOM SPREAD TO AMERICA DURING THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR AND REACHED ITS PEAK IN THE 1860's.

MOST POPULAR VALENTINES WERE LACY, ELABORATE ONES WITH SHY, CAUTIOUS VERSES.

And if an ENGLISHMAN REFUSED THE REQUEST OF A YOUNG LADY TO BE HER VALENTINE, (AND HER FUTURE MATE) HE HAD TO MAKE AMENDS BY BUYING HER SILKS AND SATINS.

BUT THERE'S NOTHING SHY ABOUT TODAY'S VALENTINES! WHETHER SENTIMENTAL OR HUMOROUS, THEY COME RIGHT TO THE POINT, WHICH IS, OF COURSE, "I LOVE YOU!"

themselves could not give an explanation why they committed the crime other than the fact that one of the fellows was "somewhat financially despondent" just before Christmas.

Clary, a widower since 1941, served 4 years in the Army, 3 overseas. He made $90 every two weeks in a steel plant, and does not drink or smoke.

Nelson served in the Navy 3 years, in South Pacific action. He is engaged to be married. Nelson was a former chief petty officer in the Navy.

The other defendant had an equally good record, Downey being a graduate of the East Greenville high school, and his father, James, a Sunnyside carpenter, being superintendent of the University of Pennsylvania Summer camps for 23 years.

Triple P Girls' Club Has Shower for One of Group

Following the monthly meeting of the Triple-P Girls' Club, Monday evening, one of the members was feted with a shower. The affair was held at the home of Miss Rena Barber, and the honored member was Mrs. Louis Sovak, the former Violet Baron, of Harrison street.

The table decorations were in pink and blue; and a large bottle of flowers formed the centerpiece, while miniature booties served as favors. A large stork stood beside a bassinet which held the gifts.

Entertainment was in the form of a "Jingle Quiz," "Name It and You Can Take It," and a "White Elephant Party."

A buffet supper was partaken of by Mrs. Louis Sovak, Mrs. Rhoda Walter, Mrs. Ronald Vasey, Mrs. Jesse Bachofer, the Misses Violet Ruth Rance, Irene Van Soest, Rena Barber, of Bristol; Miss Audrey George, Croydon; the Misses Marie Napoli and Margaret Morgan, Tullytown; Miss Lena Bustran and Mrs. James Chichester, Edgely.

Mrs. Sovak received a baby layette, made by members of the club.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Edward G. Yeomans
Pastor
Bristol Presbyterian Church

We thank Thee that amidst the many occupations, the troubles, the cares of another day, we have the opportunity of coming into Thy presence and calling upon Thee for help and guidance. Accept our praises for Thy continual mercies to us, for all the faithful fulfillment of Thy great promises which Thou hast bestowed upon us. Draw us nearer to Thee that we may live more obedient lives, aware of Thy guidance and more disposed to obey it. Pardon the sins that have marred our day and cleanse us from all that would defile us, for we ask all things in Jesus' precious name. Amen.

SPORTSMEN'S

By JOE ELBERSON

Committees . . . here are the committees, just announced by Ollie Hobbs, president of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association, who will direct the Club's activities for 1947:

Game Committee: William Bossler, chairman; Howard North, Joseph Wolvin, Charles T. Hornby, John C. Johnson, C. Donald Moyer, Edward Dyer, Howard Black, Harold Appleton, and Nunzio Rubino.

Fish Committee: Edward Blush, chairman; Arnold North, Howard Smoyer, Sr., Paul J. Keating, John Baker, Marvin Collins, and William Durr.

Trap Committee: James A. Katz, chairman; Raymond Elbersson, Frank Everett, Glen Coleigh, Hugh Barton, Jr., F. R. Davies, J. S. Fine, Frank Flynn, J. S. Lynn, and William W. Warner.

Rifle and Pistol Section: Ralph Radcliffe, Executive Officer; Sidney Popkin, Recording Secretary; George Walker, Chief Instructor; James R. Chichester, Statistical Officer; Chief of Police Linford J. Jones and Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo, Technical Advisors.

Refreshment Committee: Harry Bossler, chairman; Lefty Reynolds, William Hobbs, Peter W. Cattani, Edward Rounsavill, and Henry J. Moore.

The Entertainment Committee Chairman is Paul J. Keating.

Delegates to the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs include: John C. Johnson, Harry Bossler, and Joseph H. Elbersson.

The alternate delegates are: William Bossler, Ollie Hobbs, and James Chichester.

Improved shotshell for hunters . . . The "impossible" job of preventing the leakage of powder gas ahead of the round lead pellets in a shotshell has just been accomplished in order to give hunters a radically new clean-killing ammunition.

The secret of the new shotshell is a disc of greased cardboard shaped like an umbrella which is inverted over the powder and behind the shot pellets. When the shell is fired the expanding cup was forced up the cup-washer on the plunger of a pump.

One leakage ahead of shot pellets deforms pellets, gives poor results in below-average patterns and shot-strings.

Now new expanding cup was eliminated gas leakage and produces uniform patterns and shot strings.

The new shell produces remarkably uniform shot patterns and shot bore of the gun and seals the expanding gas behind it like the leather strings. A "pattern" is the side-to-side distribution of the on-coming pellets as they strike a target, and a "string" is their lengthwise distribution.

Announcement of this revolutionary development was made by John M. Olin, president of Olin Industries, Inc., who said it has been adopted as standard in both Winchester and Western Cartridge Company loads. Limited quantities already have been produced, and all shotshells manufactured by these firms will incorporate the new expanding cup, as well as a folding crimp in the nose of the shell, as soon as new loading machines are available.

It is claimed that the uniform concentration of shot thrown by the new shell eliminates many crippled birds which would otherwise get away to be lost.

Trap shoot . . . an open shoot over the Bristol traps at the Club grounds opposite Silver Lake will be held this Sunday, according to Jim Kotz, chairman of the Trap Committee. Shells will be available, but if you have your own bring them along. The shoot will get underway at 1:30 p. m.
